B. How to participate and vote at the General Assembly

Shareholders wishing to attend the General Meeting in person may do so as follows:

- Any registered shareholder will then be admitted to the General Meeting upon proof of identity;
- Any bearer shareholder must ask the authorised financial intermediary managing his or her securities account to send him or her an admission card.

If they are unable to attend the meeting in person, shareholders may choose one of the following three options :

- a) Give a proxy to the person of their choice under the conditions of the article L. 225-106 of the Commercial code (mandate to a third party), it being specified that, in this case, the proxyholder will have to vote by correspondence under this power ;
- b) Send a proxy to the Company without specifying a representative (give proxy to the Chairman),
- c) Vote by correspondence.

It is specified that for any proxy given by a Shareholder without indication of proxy, the Chairman of the General Meeting will vote in favor of the adoption of the draft resolutions presented or approved by the Board of Directors and a vote against the adoption of all the other draft resolutions.

Shareholders may vote by post or give a proxy, using the voting form provided for this purpose. These means of participation made available to shareholders are now the only possible.

A single postal and proxy voting form is available to shareholders at the company's registered office or can be requested by simple letter, fax or email at the following email address : assembleegenerale@gevelot-sa.fr and is also available on our website www.gevelot-sa.fr . Owners of bearer shares must accompany their form with the certificate of participation issued by an intermediary mentioned in article L.211-3 of the Monetary and Financial Code.

Proxies can validly reach the company, either by post at the registered office, or electronically at the following email address assembleegenerale@gevelot-sa.fr until the fourth day preceding the date of the General Meeting, i.e. no later than June 11, 2022.

Only notifications designating or revoking mandates duly signed, completed, received and confirmed by the fourth day preceding the date of the General Meeting at the latest will be taken into account.

The previous instructions received are then revoked.

Shareholders who have already cast their vote at a distance or sent a proxy may at any time transfer all or part of their shares. However, if the transfer takes place before the second working day preceding the meeting at midnight, Paris time, the company invalidates or modifies accordingly, as the case may be, the vote cast at a distance or the power. To this end, the account-keeping intermediary notifies the transfer to the company or its agent and sends it the necessary information.
